LINKEDIN RECOMMENDATION

“I hired Claire five years ago and she has reported directly to me since then. Claire has shown excellent communication and leadership skills and consistently exceeded company quotas. On a personal level, she's creative, passionate and pragmatic - three qualities that have served her well in her role as Marketing Director.

Claire has a strong ability to build solid plans and, most importantly, ensure perfect execution. She also impressed me with her empathy. She quickly understood the profiles and needs of our customers in the Philippines, Vietnam, Malaysia, Indonesia and Morocco, which allowed her to design tailored and successful communication campaigns.

I strongly recommend Claire to any organization looking for a great leader in marketing and communication roles.”
